THE
Carolina South- Gazette.
September 12th, 1754. [NUMB. 1056.]

To the Memory of Lieut. PETER MERCIER, Esq; who fell in the late Battle near Ohio River in Virginia, July 3d, 1754.

TOO fond of what the martial harvests yield;
Alas! too forward in the dang'rous field;
Firm and undaunted, resolute and brave;
Careless a life invaluable to save:
As one secure of fame, in battle try'd,
The glory of Ohio's sons he dy'd.

Oh! once endow'd with ev'ry pleasing pow'r,
To chase the sad, and charm the social hour;
To sweeten life with mild ingenuous arts,
And gain possession of all open hearts;
How have thy friends and comrades cause to mourn!
How wish'd they for thy peaceable return,
This province and thy household to defend,
And happily thy future years to spend!
I hop'd, the fates far longer wou'd allow
The laurel wreaths to flourish on thy brow:
I hop'd to greet thee from thy Northern toils,
Elate with victory, enrich'd with spoils:
But now, alas! those pleasing dreams are fled;
Sweetly thou sleep'st in glory's dusty bed,
By all esteem'd, admir'd, extoll'd, approv'd,
In death lamented, as in life belov'd:
Georgia loud-sounding thy atchievements tells,
And sad Virginia marks where Mercier fell.

Ah! lost too soon—too early snatch'd
To joys unfading, and immortal day!
Happy! had thy duration been prolong'd,
To vindicate the British int'rest wrong'd;
Since none more ready to defend its cause,
Or to support religion and the laws:
In thee our royal sovereign has lost,
As brave a soldier as his troops could boast.

If at some future hour of dread alarms,
When virtue and my country call to arms,
For freedom, struggling nations to unbind,
Or break those sceptres that would bruise mankind,
In such a cause, may such a death as thine,
With equal honour merited, be mine.

Charles-Town, Aug. 30, 1754. M. W.

liberations on the Subject of the laſt Expreſs from Virginia.

On Saturday laſt Mr. Edwards (one of our Pilots,) ſpoke with a large Pink-ſtern'd Brigantine, off this Bar, George Tubbs Maſter, (all well on board); ſhe had been out 16 Days from Antigua, and was bound for Georgia.

On Sunday laſt put into St. Helena Inlet, the Sloop Beaver, of and for this Port, from Providence, Daniel Sinclair Maſter. We hear, Capt. Sinclair ſaw 7 Sail of Veſſels beating up from the Southward, bound hither.

We hear, that His Excellency ARTHUR DOBBS, Eſq; the new Governor of North-Carolina, is arrived in that Province; and that a great Number of new Settlers from Ireland, are alſo arrived there.

This Day arrived here a Ship from Cork, with about 30 Paſſengers who deſign to ſettle in this Province.

This Day arrived alſo, the Sloop Bathſheba, of and from New York, bound for the Bay of Honduras, Samuel Gilford Maſter; who informs us, that his Veſſel having been aſhore on the Florida Coaſt, he was obliged to throw two thirds of her Ballaſt over board in order to get off again, which had obliged him to put in here. While Capt. Gilford was on that Coaſt, a Spaniſh Veſſel from St. Auguſtine (on the 30th of Auguſt) anchored there, whereof one Don Fernando was Commander, to whom he ſent his Compliments, and an Invitation to dine with him: Fernando accepted the Invitation on board, and, after ſome friendly Salutations, excuſed himſelf from ſtaying to dine, ſaying, he was obliged to make the beſt of his Way; but obſerving Capt. Gilford had ſome Things on board he wanted, begg'd he would let him purchaſe them, which Gilford agreed to, and accordingly ſent the Things on board the Spaniſh Veſſel, in his own Boat, by 6 of his own Men and his Pilot, with the Spaniſh Captain, who was to ſend the Purchaſe-Money in the ſame Boat: In a little Time the Boat return'd, but inſtead of his People with the Money, he obſerved there were 6 Spaniards in her, and diſcovered in her Bottom ſome Fire-Arms: Such a Proceeding, (and having now only 6 Men out of 13) made him very apprehenſive that the Spaniards intended to ſeize his Veſſel, and therefore, he deſired they would not come on board, threat'ning (after uſing other Words in vain), if they did, he would fire upon them; but they told him, that they only came to fetch him to dine with Don Fernando; perſiſted in coming along ſide; and while ſome were making faſt to a Rope, one fir'd a Muſket at Capt. Gilford, and another a Blunderbuſs at one of his Men, neither of which being hurted, Gilford's Crew returned the Spaniards Fire and kill'd one of them, two others jump'd overboard, and the Reſt cut the Rope they had made faſt to, and made the beſt of their Way back to their Veſſel, which immediately weigh'd Anchor and put to Sea. The next Day Capt. Gilford ſail'd from thence, and took up one of his Men that had been detained on board the Spaniſh Veſſel, ſwimming on a Piece of Board; who told him, that as ſoon as he and his Comrades got on board that Veſſel, they were all ſecured, and confined in her Hold; that when the Boat return'd which was to have taken his Sloop, one of his Comrades was taken out of the Hold, and theſe Words pronounc'd by the Captain, Vira Parro, (which he did not underſtand) and he heard a plungeing in the Water; that himſelf was the 3d Man brought up, after a Vira Parro, thrown into the Sea, and he believed all his Comrades were ſerved in ſame Manner, and all drown'd but himſelf. Capt. Gilford ſaw a Snow, a Brigt. and a Sloop this Morning, a little to the Southward of the Bar.

We hear, that a Sloop has been ſpoke with on the Coaſt, beating off and on to get in here, bound from Jamaica to Virginia, which has neither Anchor nor Cable, and ſcarce any Sail or Rigging, having been plundered of them by a Spaniſh Sloop that met with her in the Windward-Paſſage.
